

Welcome!

In this introductory section, you must complete a series of required steps before officially beginning Week 1 of your course. This section will provide you with the information you need to know to create or update your profile in Canvas and contact your professor, a thorough discussion of the course syllabus, information regarding APA format and best practices for academic integrity, and an overview of the course content.

